

Order under Section 21.2 of the Statutory Powers Procedure Act and the Residential Tenancies Act, 2006

Citation: Singh v Yasmin, 2025 ONLTB 95807

Date: 2025-12-10 File Number:
LTB-T-018433-25-RV

In the matter of: 915 SECOND ST E
CORNWALL ON K6H2A7

Between: Brijesh Singh Tenant
Archit Dhingra

And

Reshma Yasmin Landlord

Review Order

Brijesh Singh and Archit Dhingra (the 'Tenant') applied for an order determining that Reshma Yasmin (the 'Landlord') failed to meet the Landlord's maintenance obligations under the Residential Tenancies Act, 2006 (the 'Act') or failed to comply with health, safety, housing or maintenance standards.

This application was resolved by order LTB-T-018433-25 issued on December 2, 2025.

On December 9, 2025, the Landlord requested a review of the order.

A preliminary review of the review request was completed without a hearing.

Determinations:

1. The Landlord alleges that the order contains a serious error and that they were not reasonably able to participate in the proceeding. More specifically, the Landlord alleges that they filed a request to reschedule on June 25, 2025 because they would not be in the country on the hearing date.
2. Although the Board has no record of a request to reschedule being filed and the Landlord did not supply a copy of the request to reschedule with their request to review, the request to review form clearly states that parties must contact the Board to find out if their request has been granted and that the hearing will proceed on the hearing date if the request has not been granted.

3. I should also note that the Landlord's request to reschedule would likely have been denied had it been received as being out of the country is not sufficient grounds for rescheduling. The hearings are electronic so a party does not have to be in the country to attend.

4. As a result, on the basis of the submissions made in the request, I am not satisfied that there is a serious error in the order or that a serious error occurred in the proceedings or that the Landlord was not reasonably able to participate in the proceeding.

It is ordered that:

1. The request to review order LTB-T-018433-25 issued on December 2, 2025 is denied. The order is confirmed and remains unchanged.
